1.2. DEFINITIONS

CONSULTANT: An individual, firm, partnership, corporation or joint venture, acting directly, or through a duly authorized representative, legally submitting a Proposal or entering into a Contract with the ACMUA.

CONTRACT: The agreement covering the performance of the Project and payment therefore, including this Scope of Services, Proposal, Resolution of Award of Contract, Executed Form of Contract, Supplementary Agreements and letters or other information giving interpretations or revisions of any of the foregoing documents, all of which are to be treated as one instrument whether or not set forth at length in the form of Contract.

FINAL ACCEPTANCE: A mutual agreement of the contract parties that all professional services have been satisfactorily performed and all of the contracted deliverable documents have been satisfactorily delivered and accepted by the ACMUA.

MUNICIPAL UTILITIES AUTHORITY (ACMUA): A Public utility which owns and operates the Municipal Water Department.

PROPOSAL: The prepared form furnished by the ACMUA, properly completed and executed and submitted as a proposal for the performance of the project.

PROJECT: The entire scope of professional services and products to be performed and delivered to the ACMUA under the Contract.

BUSINESS DAY: A calendar day, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal Federal, State and City Holidays, which is mutually agreed upon as the definition of a working day for the scope of this project.

1.3. INTENT

The Authority is requesting Statement of Qualifications (RFQ) and a Proposal (RFP) for Professional Consulting Services required for the following project:

ASSISTANCE FOR FLOATING SOLAR PLAN WITH THE NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

1.4. DESCRIPTION

Professional Consulting Services sought under this Request are detailed in Article III, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY CONSULTANT.

1.5. ENGAGEMENT LIAISON

The Consultant will correspond with the following ACMUA official in all matters affecting this Contract:

G. BRUCE WARD, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
Atlantic City Municipal Utilities Authority
401 N. Virginia Avenue
P.O. Box 117
Atlantic City, New Jersey 08404-0117
609/345-3315 or 345-3386 ext. 216

The Consultant shall designate his/her authorized Project Manager on the form provided with this Scope of Services under Article VII.

ARTICLE II GENERAL PROVISION

2.1 RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CONSULTANT

With respect to the performance of consulting services, the Consultant shall exercise that degree of skill, care and diligence normally exercised by a recognized professional with respect to the performance of comparable consulting services.

With respect to the performance of work by subcontractors, the Consultant shall use its recognized professional judgment, care and prudence in accepting such work.

In its performance of professional consulting services, the Consultant:

- A. Shall comply with all applicable laws and ordinances, including applicable regulations of the City, County, State and Federal Government.
- B. Shall be responsible for the coordination, integration and interfacing of all work performed by its own forces and subcontractors.

2.2 DATA TO BE FURNISHED TO THE CONSULTANT

The ACMUA shall furnish to the Consultant, at its request, and in a timely manner, all pertinent plans, reports, records, maps and supporting data which are and which shall become available to the ACMUA and which the Consultant may require in performance of the consulting service.

2.3 PERSONNEL

The ACMUA reserves the right to direct the Consultant to remove and reject nomination of any of its personnel from the performance of the professional consulting services under this Contract. If such removal is for cause, the cost shall be borne by the Consultant.

The Consultant recognizes that the assignment of personnel was a key factor in the selection of the Consultant by the ACMUA. The Consultant agrees that the persons listed elsewhere in this Scope of Services will perform such functions as indicated. Any proposed changes must be approved by the ACMUA Official.

2.4 PROJECT MANAGEMENT

The Consultant Project Manager for the consulting services shall be fully responsible for the day-to-day activities under this Contract and shall serve as the primary contact to the ACMUA's official.

2.5 PROJECT CONTROL SCHEDULING

2.5.1 DUTIES OF THE CONSULTANT PROJECT MANAGER:

General duties of the Consultant Project Manager will include review of all technical products of the Consultant and project administration within the limits of the Contract. All correspondence and communication between the ACMUA and the Consultant related to the scope of the project will be issued by or directed by the Consultant Project Manager. The Consultant Project Manager is not authorized to direct the Consultant to accomplish any work not required by the Contract nor is he authorized to approve the changes in the Contract on behalf of the ACMUA.

2.5.2 WORK SCHEDULE:

For larger projects, a preliminary Gantt Chart Schedule will be requested for the performance of work outlined in the Scope of Services. This schedule shall be used for progress monitoring and control. If at any time during the performance of this specified consulting services, the Consulting foresees any variation from the approved work schedule, he shall immediately submit a revised work schedule to the ACMUA for review and approval. For smaller projects a schedule is still required in the proposal.

2.5.3 FEE ESTIMATES:

Proposed fee estimates shall be coordinated with the schedule and any proposed project phasing. Any necessary revised fee estimates shall be submitted to the ACMUA for review and approval prior to requests for payment. Lump sum fees are preferred.

2.5.4 PROGRESS REPORTS:

For larger-scale engagements, the Consultant shall submit monthly progress reports in writing to the ACMUA by the end of the third week of the following month. These progress reports shall include:

- A. A narrative discussion of all activities in progress during the report period, including services to be performed during the next month.
- B. A narrative discussion of the work schedule and an estimate of the per cent of completion of the consulting services rendered to date including any variations from the accepted work schedule. Variations shall be accompanied by a narrative exception.
- C. An estimate of costs for each task including variations from the proposed fee schedule. Variations shall be accompanied by a narrative explanation.

2.6 TIME OF PERFORMANCE

The Consultant shall perform in his professional services with due diligence and shall complete the professional services within the time schedule contained in this Scope of Services after receipt of the ACMUA's Notice to Proceed. In the event that performance of the professional consulting services is delayed by causes beyond the reasonable control of the Consultant and its subcontractors, and without fault or negligence of the Consultant and its subcontractors, the time and additional costs occurred for the performance of the professional services shall be equitably adjusted to reflect the extent of such delay, provided that the Consultant shall have given the ACMUA written ten (10) days of commencement of such delay. Such notice shall include a description of the delay and the steps to be taken by the Consultant and other to mitigate the affect of such delay.

The Consultant shall proceed with the project only upon receipt of written Notice to Proceed from the ACMUA.

2.7 PROGRESS REPORT

In addition to the provisions of Article 2.5, the ACMUA shall be entitled at times to be advised, at its request, of the status of the project being done by the Consultant and of details thereof. The closest collaboration and cooperation shall be maintained by the Consultant with representatives of the ACMUA, and either party to the Contract may request and be granted a conference.

2.8 OWNERSHIP OF DOCUMENTS AND EQUIPMENT

All finished and unfinished documents, data, studies, surveys, drawings, specifications, maps, photographs, reports, books and instruments gathered or prepared for, or by the Consultant pursuant to this Contract shall be the property of the ACMUA without restriction or limitation on their use. Original copies of such items shall be delivered by the Consultant to the ACMUA upon final acceptance or within sixty (60) days after termination of the professional consulting services. The Consultant shall be permitted to retain, at its own cost, copies of such items for its records, however, publication of this material is subject to the written approval of the ACMUA.

Tangible items of non-consumed equipment, materials, supplies and furnishings purchased by the Consultant, the cost of which have been reimbursed to the Consultant as a direct cost, shall be turned over to the ACMUA at completion of, or early termination of, the professional consulting services, or otherwise disposed of as directed by the ACMUA, and the proceeds of any such disposal shall be credited to the ACMUA.

2.9 INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY

SEE SCHEDULE A

The Consultant shall, to the full extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify, hold harmless, and upon request, defend the ACMUA, the ACMUA's respective officers, employees, agents and representatives from and against any and all claims, losses, costs, damages and liability on account of injury to or death of any person or loss of or damage to any property arising from any negligent acts or omissions of the Consultant or its officers, employees, agents, subcontractors or representatives during the course of this project.

2.10 FINAL ACCEPTANCE

When the project has been completed, the Consultant shall so advise the ACMUA in writing. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice, the ACMUA shall give the Consultant written notice of any uncompleted services, or the ACMUA shall issue a letter of Final Acceptance. Upon completion of any uncompleted services, the Consultant shall again notify the ACMUA and shall request written notice of Final Acceptance. Once the uncompleted services are complete, the ACMUA shall issue a letter of Final Acceptance within thirty (30) days of such notice. Final Acceptance shall not constitute a waiver or abandonment of any rights or remedies available to the ACMUA under any other section of this Contract.

2.11 TERMINATION, SUSPENSION AND SANCTIONS

If through any cause within the reasonable control of the Consultant, the Consultant shall fail to fulfill in a timely and proper manner, or otherwise violate any of the covenants, agreements or stipulations material to this Contract, the ACMUA shall thereupon have the right to terminate the Contract then remaining to be performed by giving written notice to the Consultant of such termination which shall become effective upon receipt by the Consultant. In the event of termination, all finished and unfinished documents, data, studies, surveys, drawings, maps, models, photographs, reports and all other work products prepared by the Consultant, and its subcontractors, shall be promptly delivered to the ACMUA, who shall compensate the Consultant in accordance with the terms of this Contract for all Professional Consulting Services performed by the Consultant prior to termination, that are evidenced by materials delivered by the Consultant to the ACMUA.

Notwithstanding the above, the Consultant shall not be relieved of liability to the ACMUA for damages sustained by the ACMUA by virtue of any breach of the Contract by the Consultant, and the ACMUA may reasonably withhold payment to the Consultant until such time as the exact amount of damages to the ACMUA, from the Consultant, is determined.

The ACMUA may, for its convenience, terminate the project then remaining to be performed at any time by giving written notice to the Consultant of such termination, which shall become effective upon receipt by the Consultant. In addition to the provisions of the above two paragraphs, the Consultant shall be reimbursed for all costs incidental to said termination, including without limitation, demobilization costs, and otherwise, reimbursed under these termination provisions. Such payments shall be the total extend of the ACMUA's liability to the Consultant upon termination for convenience.

The ACMUA also reserves the right to terminate the project then remaining to be performed in the event the Consultant is placed either in voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or makes an assignment for benefit of creditors. All rights and obligations shall be the same as provided for in this Article.

In the event of the Consultant's non-compliance with the non-discrimination provisions of this Contract, the ACMUA shall impose such Contract sanctions as it may determine to be appropriate, including but not limited to withholding of payment to the Consultant under the Contract until the Consultant complies with said provisions. In the event the ACMUA cancels or terminates the project pursuant to this paragraph, the rights and obligations shall be the same as provided for in this Article.

2.12 CHANGES

The ACMUA may, from time to time, order changes in the project and the Consultant shall promptly comply with each written order in accordance with procedures to be established by the ACMUA. Each change shall be directed by a written change order signed by the ACMUA official designated in this Scope of Services and accepted by the Consultant Project Manager. Said change order will provide equitable adjustment in the time of performance, budget and fixed fee if applicable, as well as any other provisions of this Contract which are affected by said change order.

If the Consultant is of the opinion that any services it has been directed to perform are beyond the scope of this Contract, and constitutes extra work, it shall promptly notify the ACMUA of that opinion, in writing.

2.13 DISPUTES

Except as provided for in this Contract, any disputes concerning a question of fact arising under this Contract, which is not disposed of by agreement, shall be decided by the ACMUA, which shall mail or otherwise furnish a copy in writing of the decision to the Consultant. The decision of the ACMUA shall be final and conclusive unless within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of such copy, the Consultant mails, or otherwise furnishes, to the ACMUA a written appeal. The decision of the ACMUA or its Board of Directors, for the determination of such appeals, shall be final and conclusive unless determined otherwise by a court of competent jurisdiction. In connection with any appeal proceeding under this Article, the Consultant shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard and to offer evidence in support of his appeal. Pending final decision of a dispute hereunder, the Consultant shall proceed diligently with the performance of the Contract in accordance with the ACMUA's decision. Failure to comply with the provisions of the above paragraph shall be cause for termination in accordance with Article 2.11.

2.14 INSPECTION

The Consultant shall permit the authorized representatives of the ACMUA, the county of Atlantic, State of New Jersey and the Federal Government to inspect, review and approval all work tracings, plans, specifications, maps, data, records and construction site work performed, gathered or developed under this contract at anytime within the duration of the Contract and within three (3) years after the final acceptance or termination of the Contract.

2.15 ASSIGNMENT, TRANSFER OR SUBCONTRACTING

The Consultant shall not assign any interest in this Contract and shall not transfer any interest in the same, whether by assignment or novation, without the prior written consent of the ACMUA. With prior written approval by the ACMUA of the proposed subcontracts, the Consultant may subcontract not more than fifty (50%) per cent of the Contract to another third party.

2.16 EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Consultant shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, sex, age, ancestry, marital status, physically handicapped, place of birth or national origin. The Consultant shall take affirmative actions to insure that applicants are employed and that employees are treated during their employment without regard to their race, religion, color, sex, age, ancestry, marital status, physically handicapped, place of birth or national origin. Such actions shall include, but not be limited to the following: Employment, upgrading, transfer or demotion, recruitment, or recruitment advertising, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation and selection for training including apprenticeship. Evidence of such action will be included in a written Affirmative Action Plan developed in accordance with the requirements of Resolution No. 267 of 1992.

During the performance of this Contract, the Consultant agrees as follows:

The Consultant shall, and all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contract, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, ancestry, martial status, physically handicapped, place of birth or national origin.

The Consultant shall send to each labor union or representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding, as applicable, a notice to be provided advising the said labor union or worker's representative of a Consultant's commitments with this paragraph, and shall post copies of the notice in a conspicuous place available to employees and applicants for employment.

The Consultant will cooperate with the ACMUA in meeting its commitments for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, and will use its best efforts to insure that minority enterprises shall have the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontract work under this project. The Consultant shall include in all subcontracts which may exceed $5,000, the requirements of Federal Procurement Regulations regarding the utilization of minority business enterprises as follows:

a. It is the policy of the Government that minority business enterprises shall have the maximum practicable opportunity to participate in the performance of Government contracts.

b. The Consultant agrees to use his/her best efforts to carry out this policy in the award of his/her subcontractors to the fullest extent consistent with the efficient performance of this Contract. Contractors may rely on written representations by subcontractors regarding their status as minority business enterprises in lieu of an independent investigation.

2.17 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Consultant covenants that it presently has no interest, and shall not acquire any interest, direct or indirectly, which would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of this Contract. The Consultant further covenants that in the performance of this Contract, no person having any such interest shall knowingly be employed by the Consultant.

No member, officer or employee of the ACMUA or of a local public body, during his/her tenure, or for one (1) year thereafter shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in this Contract or the proceeds thereof.

2.18 COVENANT AGAINST CONTINGENT FEES

The Consultant warrants that it has not employed nor retained any company or person other than a bona fide employee working solely for the Consultant, to solicit or secure the Contract, and that he has not paid or agreed to pay any person, company, corporation, individual or firm, other than a bona fide employee working solely for the Consultant, any fee, commission, percentage, gift or any other consideration, contingent upon or resulting from the award or making of this Contract.

2.19 PATENT RIGHTS, COPYRIGHTS, CONFIDENTIAL FINDINGS

Any patentable result arising out of this Contract, as well as all information, designs, specifications, processes, data and findings, shall be made available to the ACMUA, unless it is legally determined that it is in the public interest that it not be so made available.

No reports, maps, other documents, articles or devices produced in whole or in part under this Contract shall be the subject of any application for a copyright or patent by or on behalf of the Consultant or its employees subcontractors.

2.20 NOTICES

All Communications relating to the day-to-day activities shall be exchanges between the Consultant Project Manager and the ACMUA official designated herein. The Consultant Project Manager shall be designated when submitting this Proposal.

Notices hereunder shall be effective on delivery, if delivered personally, on the day following postmark if mailed to an address in Atlantic City, and on the seventh (7) day following postmark, if mailed to an address outside Atlantic City.

2.21 PUBLICITY NEWS RELEASES

The Consultant shall not during or after performance of this Contract, disseminate any information outside its organization regarding this project, or the services performed for the ACMUA without prior written approval of the ACMUA Official.

2.22 AS-BUILT PLANS (DELETED)

The Consultant shall prepare an As-Built plan upon completion of the project and shall submit two (2) reproducible copies of these documents, signed, to the ACMUA Official. The As-Built plans shall show specific, dimensional locations and depths of all construction as it was actually completed in the field. Any changes from the original plans shall be highlighted on the As-Built plans.

As-Built plans shall be filed with the ACMUA Official prior to the releasing of the final payment and within twenty (20) calendar days of submission of the construction contractor's final payment request.

2.23 AFFIRMATIVE ACTION GENERAL CONDITIONS

Consultant submitting proposals are required to comply with the requirements of Public Law 1975, Chapter 127, and ACMUA Resolution No. 267 of 1992.

ALL CONSULTANTS are required to submit an Affirmative Action Plan with their bid stating their compliance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Ordinance(s) regarding equal employment opportunity and shall file employment information reports, or other reports as may be required by the ACMUA.

ALL CONSULTANTS submitting proposals are required to submit the schedule of Minority Contractors and/or suppliers with their bid, listing the minority contractors and/or suppliers at a minimum of ten (10%) per cent of the total bid amount they will be utilizing and to identify all of his/her subcontractors and they must disclose where they are buying all of their suppliers before approval of the subcontractors.

The successful Consultant's employment goals are hereby restated as per P.L. 1975, c. 127, to be minority percentage twenty (20%) per cent and female percentage forty-three (43%) per cent for procurement and service contractors, and twenty (20%) per cent minority workers in each construction trade for construction contracts.

- (a) MINORITY BUSINESS ENTERPRISE: A minority business enterprise is an independent business concern which is at least fifty-one (51%) per cent owned and controlled by minority group members; is or has the potential to be an independent and continuing enterprise and meeting the following requirements:
 - 1. The minority ownership in the firm must be real, substantial and continuing.
 - 2. The minority ownership has and exercises the authority to independently control the business decision of the entity.

- (b) MINORITY GROUP MEMBERS: Minority group members are citizens who are Black, Hispanic, Asian, or American Indian, as further defined by the Executive Committee.

- (c) GOODS and SERVICES: The procurement of goods and services shall include but not be limited to construction design and related services, the purchase of all goods and materials and professional services.
- (d) EXEMPTION: The classification of a particular contract area as exempt from the MBE utilization requirements established in this Order for lack of MBE's in the area.
- (e) WAIVER: The granting to a majority business enterprise a waiver on particular contract of the MBE utilization requirements established by this Order.

The following is reprinted from Resolution No. 267 of 1992. The bidders should in no way consider this the entire Ordinance.

The Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, ancestry, or national origin. The Contractor shall take affirmative action to insure that applicants are employed, and that employees are treated during employment, without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, ancestry or national origin. (as used herein the work "TREATED" Shall mean and include, without limitation, the following: recruited, whether advertising or other means; compensated, whether in the form of rates of pay or other forms of compensation; selected for training, including apprenticeship; promoted; upgraded; demoted; downgraded; transferred; laid off; and terminated.) The contractor agrees to and shall post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notice to be provided by the Authority setting forth the provisions of this nondiscrimination clause. The contractor shall make a good faith effort to utilize a certified minimum of ten (10%) per cent minority contractors and/or suppliers.

The contractor shall, in all classifications including trainees or any contracted project with the Authority, have a working Affirmative Action Plan. No contractor having traditionally deprived employees in all classifications of his/her work force shall receive a contract from the Authority unless his/her Affirmative Action Plan will actualize this goal. The contractor shall, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, state that all applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, ancestry or national origin. The contractors shall send to each labor union or representative of workers with which they have collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding, a notice advising the labor union or workers representative of the contractor's commitments under the Equal Employment Opportunity Resolution of the Authority and shall post copies of the notice in conspicuous places available to employees and applicant for employment.

It shall be no excuse for non-compliance that the union with which the contractor has a collective bargaining agreement providing for exclusive referral failed to refer traditionally deprived persons.

The contractors shall file and shall cause their subcontractors, if any, a file compliance reports with the Authority in the form and to the extent prescribed by the Authority Compliance reports filed at such times as directed shall contain information as to the employment practices, policy, programs and statistics of the contractors and their subcontractors.

The contractor shall comply with such action with respect to any subcontractor as the Authority may direct as a means of enforcing the provisions herein, including penalties and sanctions for non-compliance.

The Contractor shall include the provisions herein of this Equal Employment Opportunity Clause in every subcontractor or purchase order so that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor.

During hearing procedures, dealing with non-compliance, all contract payments shall be withheld and if it is determined after opportunity for hearing on the record that the contractor or subcontractor has failed to comply with any portion of the program as herein stated and described, that finding will subject the offending party to any or all of the following penalties:

- a. Continue withholding of all future payments under the public contract to the contractor in violations, until it is determined that the contractor or subcontractor is in compliance with the provisions of the contract.
- b. Refusal of all future bids for any public contract with the Authority or any of its departments or divisions until such time as the contractor or subcontractor demonstrates that he has established and shall carry out the policies of the program as herein outlined.
- c. Cancellation of the public contract and declaration of forfeiture of the performance bond.
- d. In cases in which there is substantial or material violation or the threat of substantial or material violation of the compliance procedure or that which may be provided for by the contract, appropriate proceedings may be brought to enforce those provisions.

The Consultant shall complete all pages of the "Affirmative Action Requirements" with their bid in order for their bid to be considered.

ARTICLE III PROFESSIONAL SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY CONSULTANT

The engineering services to be provided in this task are

The ACACMUA desires to install a Floating Solar array on its Lower Reservoir (aka Doughty Pond) to provide supplemental electric energy power for its facilities.

The Consultant shall provide research into the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (“NJDEP”) regulations covering “on stream features on a fluvial floodway.” The Consult shall address how this new Floating Solar technology should be permitted to be installed on the Lower Reservoir by documenting:

1. How the purposes of the NJDEP will not be disturbed by the ACMUA proposed Floating Solar Array.
2. Evidence of Wind Tolerance of Floating Solar installations worldwide
3. Review of Floating Solar mooring technics that constrain solar panels from being dislodged
4. Document how the Doughty Pond dam serves to block dislodged trees and other matters from entering downstream waterways
5. Detail how the proposed ACMUA Solar Installation comports with the goals of the New Jersey Energy Master Plan.

In addition, to preparation of documentation to be submitted to the appropriate representative(s) of the NJDEP, the Consultant shall attend with the ACMUA and its legal and energy consultants, any meetings as may be requested by the NJDEP. The ACMUA foresees a need for additional engineering services should the Floating Solar Project be approved for installation by the NJDEP. The ACACMUA is considering utilizing the same consultant that prepares the Floating Solar approval services, to perform additional engineering services as needed on the Floating Solar Installation.

The Report must be submitted both in hard copy (15 copies), and electronic format. The electronic version may be submitted by email. All certificates (10 copies) and the Budget Report must be submitted both in hard copy and via email. All electronic versions must be in MS Word and be editable.

ARTICLE IV SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

4.1 REVIEW OF REPORTS

The Executive Director of the Atlantic City Municipal Utilities Authority shall review all information submitted by the Consultant in this regard and provided direction within a reasonable period of time of the receipt of submittal. The Consultant shall not proceed with subsequent stages of their contract until the ACMUA has completed its review and is given written concurrence with the Consultant's recommendations.

4.2 PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS

The Consultant shall provide conditions and associated boiler plate. The Consultant shall forward the full set of original technical specifications to the ACMUA official for their review.

The Consultant shall make all required copies of the plans and specifications and shall be responsible for distribution of same to prospective consultants. The ACMUA shall be responsible for submitting the legal advertisement for solicitation of bids.

4.3 AWARD OF CONTRACT

After receipt of bids for the construction work, the ACMUA Official shall be responsible for recommending a course of action to the Board of Directors. The ACMUA Official shall consult the Consultant on the evaluation of the bids received in the preparation of recommending a course of action.

4.4 PAYMENT TO CONSULTANT AND CONTRACTOR

The Consultant shall prepare all ACMUA vouchers for payment to the Consultant.

ARTICLE V TIME SCHEDULE AND LIQUIDATION DAMAGES

5.1 TIME SCHEDULE

Time is of the essence in the performance of the professional consulting services required for this project. The Consultant shall submit a proposed schedule of time for completion of the Documentation for submission to the NJDEP.

ARTICLE VI COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT

6.1 FINANCIAL RECORDS

The Consultant shall maintain books, records, documents and other evidence and accounting procedures and practices sufficient to reflect properly all direct and indirect costs, of whatever nature, claimed to have been incurred and anticipated to be incurred for the performance of this contract until the expiration of three (3) years from the date of final payment under this contract. The system of accounting will be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals and practices and shall be consistently applied.

The Consultant shall permit the authorized representatives of the ACMUA and other affected governmental agencies to inspect and audit all books, records, documents and other supporting data and documentation relating to its performance under the contract. These rights of audit shall extend for a period of three (3) years following final payment under this contract.

In the event the funds paid to the Consultant under this contract are subsequently properly disallowed by the ACMUA because of accounting errors or charges not in conformity with this contract, the Consultant shall refund such disallowed amount to the ACMUA promptly.

If the contract is completely or partially terminated, the records relating to the work terminated shall be preserved and made available for a period of three (3) years from the date of any resulting final settlement.

Records which relate to appeals, litigation or the settlement of claims arising out of the performance of this contract, or costs and expense of this contract to which exception has been taken by the ACMUA, or by any of its duly authorized representatives, shall be retained until the expiration of three (3) years from the date of final payment under this contract or until such appeals, litigations, claims or exceptions have been disposed of, whichever occurs later.

6.2 CONTRACT CEILING:

Regardless of the method of compensation, the total compensation to be paid to the Consultant by the ACMUA on account of this project as provided herein, shall not exceed the amount of the approved contract.

Changes issued by the ACMUA pursuant to the Scope of Services shall not constitute authorization by the ACMUA to exceed the contract ceiling except to the extent that, provisions to such affect are set forth in said changes. In the event the actual costs of the professional services overrun the contract ceiling as a result of the Consultant's deviations from the Scope of Services, which deviations are not directed or authorized in writing by the ACMUA, the Consultant will absorb for its own account, one hundred (100%) per cent of the amount of said overrun.

6.3 METHOD OF COMPENSATION:

For the performance of this contract, the ACMUA shall compensate the Consultant according to the following schedule: (to be submitted by Consultant)

The Consultant shall submit his/her invoice to the ACMUA's Comptroller, and it shall be due and payable by the ACMUA, conditionally pending audit review, prior to the end of the following month.

The compensation provided for herein which remains unpaid after final acceptance by the ACMUA, for the total project shall be paid to the Consultant by the ACMUA within thirty (30) days after final audit by the authorized representatives of the ACMUA.

GOODS, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AND GENERAL SERVICE CONTRACTS

During the performance of this contract, the contractor agrees as follows:

The contractor or subcontractor, where applicable, will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of age, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex. Except with respect to affectional or sexual orientation, the contractor will take affirmative action to ensure that such applicants are recruited and employed, and that employees are treated during employment, without regard to their age, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex. Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The contractor agrees to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notices to be provided by the Public Agency Compliance Officer setting forth provisions of this non-discrimination clause.

The contractor or subcontractor, where applicable will, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the contractor, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex.

The contractor or subcontractor, where applicable, will send to each labor union or representative or workers with which it has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding, a notice, to be provided by the agency contracting officer advising the labor union or workers' representative of the contractor's commitments under this act and shall post copies of the notice in conspicuous places available to employees and applicants for employment.

The contractor or subcontractor, where applicable, agrees to comply with the regulations promulgated by the Treasurer pursuant to N.J.S.A. 10:5-31 et seq., as amended and supplemented from time to time and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to attempt in good faith to employ minority and women workers consistent with the applicable county employment goals established in accordance with N.J.A.C. 17:27-5.2, or a binding determination of the applicable county employment goals determined by the Division, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 17:27-5.2.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to inform in writing its appropriate recruitment agencies including, but not limited to, employment agencies, placement bureaus, colleges, universities, labor unions, that it does not discriminate on the basis of age, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex, and that it will discontinue the use of any recruitment agency which engages in direct or indirect discriminatory practices.

The contractor or subcontractor agrees to revise any of its testing procedures, if necessary, to assure that all personnel testing conforms with the principles of job-related testing, as established by the statutes and court decisions of the State of New Jersey and as established by applicable Federal law and applicable Federal court decisions.

In conforming with the applicable employment goals, the contractor or subcontractor agrees to review all procedures relating to transfer, upgrading, downgrading and layoff to ensure that all such actions are taken without regard to age, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex, consistent with the statutes and court decisions of the State of New Jersey, and applicable Federal law and applicable Federal court decisions.

The contractor shall submit to the public agency, after notification of award but prior to execution of a good and services contract, one of the following three documents:

Letter of Federal Affirmative Action Plan Approval
Certificate of Employee Information Report
Employee Information Report form AA302

The contractor and its subcontractor shall furnish such reports or other documents to the Division of Contract Compliance & EEO as may be requested by the Division from time to time in order to carry out the purposes of these regulations, and public agencies shall furnish such information as may be requested by the Division of Contract Compliance & EEO for conducting a compliance investigation pursuant to Subchapter 10 of the Administrative Code (NJAC 17:27).
